

Dr. Nolan T. Torbert is an accomplished pastor, leader and instructor who effectively utilize his leadership abilities and experiences to constantly increase the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to strengthen the community. For over 20 years, he has allowed God to teach him how to bless others by maximizing leadership abilities and demonstrating administrative abilities. His teaching, team-building gifts, experience, and spiritual expertise are all examples of his devotion and dedication to the only true and living God. He is the founder and senior pastor of True Deliverance Holiness Church and Changing Hearts and Destiny (C.H.A.D.), Auburn, Alabama. He also serves as overseer, spiritual father and mentor of several other ministries. Bishop Torbert serves as the Assistant Presiding Ambassador of Alabama Region Churches for Creflo Dollar Ministerial Association (CDMA), which consists of 32 churches. A native of Beauregard Community, Dr. Torbert is a proud graduate of Beauregard High School. He attended Southern Union Community College. He also received several certificates through Auburn University Continuing Education Courses. To strengthen his biblical knowledge, he enrolled and graduated from the Apostolic Bible Teaching Institute, where he received a Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Doctorate of Divinity, and Doctorate of Theology Degree. Dr. Torbert is truly a servant leader of Auburn-Opelika and surrounding communities. He is married to Gail D. Torbert (a retiree from Auburn University), and they are proud parents of one son, Tyree, an AU Graduate (wife, Deunta, a SUSCS Graduate) and one daughter, Deana, a Troy University Graduate, one grandson, Tre.
